- V - Juries will be formed by prominent musicians. The organization is not liable for changes to the jury members due to force majeure.

If a jury member have a kin relationship with a competitor and/or if he/she has been teaching a competitor in the last three years, he/she must refrain from voting for that musician. This abstention will be mentioned on the minutes.

The organization will ask every jury member to declare his personal position towards the participants.

- VI - Each exam, action, judgment and decision of the jury will be recorded in the minutes and will be approved and signed by the President or his/her representative. The minutes are public and can be viewed in the Competition secretarial office.

The decision of the juries is final and irrevocable. It will be expressed in hundredths and adopted by unanimity after discussion in other words according to the arithmetic mean of the single votes, with exclusion of the highest and the lowest if divergent more than 3/100 from the nearest vote.

Unless explicitly granted by the Artistic Director, the minimum score of each jury member for the best rated candidate may not be less than 90/100, and the scoring gap between two candidates may not be such as to determine the non-awarding of prizes.

The Artistic Director can reserve the right to round off the score to the nearest half number.

The juries can reserve the right to award ex-aequo prizes, or not to give any, in case of insufficient merit.

The "First Absolute Classified" is intended as the candidate with the highest score among those who will get at least 95/100.

SPECIFIC RULES FOR THE "BENGALLI" AND "ANGUISSOLA SCOTTI" PRIZES

Concerning the Professional Prizes divided in two or more Rounds, in the Eliminary Round each jury member will give only a judgement of eligibility for the Final Round. The competitors who obtain at least 2/3 of passes will be admitted to the next Round. The jury will then evaluate the ones that have reached a simple majority and others deserving special consideration.

In the Final Round the vote shall be expressed in hundredths, with exclusion of the highest and the lowest. In the case where the voters were less than seven, the highest and/or lowest will be excluded only if diverging more than 3/100 from the nearest vote, unless this does not entail significant changes in the relative position ranking.

The three competitors with the highest scores, in any case not lower than 95/100, 90/100 and 85/100 respectively, will be considered First, Second and Third Prize.

To be granted the First Prize the competitor must not only have at least a score of 95/100 but also the majority of the jury members must have put the competitor in first place. If only one of the conditions is met (average score of at least 95/100 or the majority vote of the jury members), the First Prize could also be granted by the qualified majority of 2/3 of the jury members.

The First Prize is indivisible. In the case of ex-aequo, the prize will be awarded to the youngest competitor.

In the final ranking, the Prizes which have not been awarded shall also be taken into consideration.

- VII - All prizes are subject to tax withholding and will be paid by bank transfer.

The special prize mentioned in the "Bengali" and "Anguissola Scotti" Prizes is a single prize, which will be divided in equal parts if more participants obtain a score of at least 99/100.

The special prizes mentioned in the "Val Tidone" Young Talent Competition are three prizes, for a total amount of 1,500 EUR. They will be divided in equal parts if the winners are more than three.

Special scholarships and concerts might be assigned by the Artistic Director.

In the case of engagements for concerts, the fee includes travel expenses and can be integrated by the organizers. The organizers will also cover the accommodation and meals costs.

All the scholarships for specialization courses are referred to annual and multi-year training courses at institutions of higher education identified by the Artistic Direction and will cover part of the course fee.
